

Humphreys United Club Bylaws

These Bylaws dated 2023-2024, shall supersede all others.

Article I: NAME

Section 1.01 The name of this organization shall be the Humphreys United Club (United Club). The organization shall also own and operate the Humphreys Thrift Store (Thrift Store). This is a private nonprofit organization and public charity. It is not part of the Department of Defense or one of its components and it has no governmental status.

Article II. PURPOSE

Section 2.01 The United Club is a self-sustaining, private organization whose purpose is for charitable and social purposes. This includes lessening the burden of the government by promoting friendship among the entire military community (including all branches of service, active duty, retirees, spouses, and others), developing and fostering a spirit of goodwill and community responsibility, providing opportunities for social, cultural, and creative pursuits, and distribution of scholarships for individuals, grants for organizations, and support for the local community.

Article III. HUMPHREYS UNITED CLUB

The Humphreys United Club board will consist of the following:

Section 3.01 The executive board as defined in Article III, Section 3.01, of the United Club Constitution.

Article XI. SUBCLUBS

Section 11.01 Subclubs shall be defined as informal groups of the United Club. They will be composed of members in good standing who meet periodically for a common interest.

Section 11.02 The Activities chair is responsible for the creation and the coordination of all subclubs, selecting and supporting subclub leads.

Humphreys United Club Bylaws

Section 11.03 Each subclub lead will register and maintain a roster with the activities chair. Each subclub lead should attend Super Sign Up or work with the Activities chair on representation.

Section 11.04 Each subclub lead, in coordination with the Activities chair, should submit information to the appropriate general board members (Publicity, Membership, etc.) for recruitment, advertising, and publicizing.

Section 11.05 No subclub may engage in fundraising activities. Members of subclubs are also not allowed to promote or publicize private businesses or products.

Article XII. ELECTION AND VOTING

Section 12.01 During general board meetings, each voting position receives one vote. If a position has co-chairs, the position still gets only one vote. A board meeting quorum is defined as 50% +1 of the voting members in good standing.

Section 12.02 Decisions will be made by a simple majority unless otherwise indicated that it must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote.

Section 12.03 The United Club officers shall be elected by a quorum of active members in good standing. Voting will occur as indicated above. A quorum for a vote by members shall be twenty percent (20%) of the active membership in good standing.

Section 12.04 A quorum must be present for a committee to act. A committee quorum is defined as a minimum of three (3) voting members indicated with an asterisk in the committee Bylaws and a minimum of two (2) general members in good standing. A voting member may use a proxy or vote in advance, at their discretion, in agreement with the chair.

Article XIII. SPECIAL VOTING PROCEDURES

Section 13.01 When an immediate decision is required, the President may call for a United Club General Board vote by email. Each voting member must be informed that this is a voting procedure and the message must contain the motion under consideration in its complete form prior to voting. An electronic vote is to be administered solely by the President and will follow all of the voting requirements of an in-person general board meeting.

Section 13.02 In the event that the President is unable to fulfill these duties, the Parliamentarian will administer the vote. Quorum and voting procedures shall be the same as outlined in the constitution. All electronic votes and their results are to be reflected in the minutes.

Article XIV. DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

Section 14.01 A United Club Member in "good standing" is defined as a member who has done the following:

- a) Paid dues in full.
- b) Made payment in full of all costs associated with attendance at monthly general membership functions.
- c) Returned all borrowed or rented property (Borrowed Boutique/event rentals) in the same condition as obtained or paid the listed value for damaged or lost item(s) at fair market value.

Section 14.02 The United Club has the ultimate right to require that its members refrain from conduct injurious to the organization and its purpose.

Humphreys United Club Bylaws

Section 14.03 Removal of a Board Member

- a) Members of the board may be removed from either their elected or their appointed positions for “just cause”. Any United Club member may propose such a removal to the Executive board.
- b) The Executive board shall meet with the board member named in the proposal to remove. After conducting an informal and detailed inquiry, the Executive board will determine whether there is justification for proceeding with a special meeting, dismissal of complaint or acceptance of resignation (should the board member choose to resign during the informal inquiry).
- c) Special meeting procedures: Executive board calls a special meeting, on the record, of the general board to discuss and vote. The board member will be given time, not to exceed seven (7) business days, to either voluntarily resign or prepare a written rebuttal to the proposal for removal. The board member will have the opportunity to present their written rebuttal to the general board at the special meeting. A quorum of general board members with a 2/3 vote can remove a board member.
- d) Upon removal or resignation all United Club property in possession of said board member, including but not limited to, debit card and thrift store key, must be returned to the President within 24 hours of the vote to remove. If the board member is on the United Club bank account, they will remove themselves from the account immediately. Failure to comply with the removal procedures will result in the automatic revocation of Humphreys United Club membership.

Article XV. INSURANCE

Section 15.01 The United Club will have liability and fire insurance coverage for any government building in which the club holds storage.

Section 15.02 The Operating Treasurer will purchase insurance for all bonding and liabilities annually (refer to Article V, Section 7 of the United Club constitution).

Section 15.03 Adequate insurance will be obtained to protect the United Club against public liability, property damage, or other legal actions that may arise because of activities conducted by the organization, one or more of its members acting on its behalf, and the operation of any equipment, apparatus, or device under the control and/or responsibility of this private organization.

Article XVI. ADOPTION AND AMENDMENTS

Section 16.01 Bylaws may be reviewed each membership year by the constitution and bylaws committee and updated as needed.

Section 16.02 These bylaws and any amendments shall be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the United Club Board and then disseminated to the general membership. The amended bylaws shall supersede all previous bylaws.

Section 16.03 An updated copy of the bylaws shall be provided to the Installation Commander and to the Management Assistant, Financial Management Branch, NAF, Support Services Division, FMWR for approval and final adoption as per Army regulations, specifically DODI 1000.15 and FH Reg. 210-56.

Article XVII. PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

SECTION 17.01 In all parliamentary matters not covered by the United Club constitution and bylaws, the United Club shall be guided by the most current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order. A copy of these rules shall be available for reference at each meeting of the general board as well as at membership programs of the United Club.

Humphreys United Club Bylaws

Article XVIII. GIFTS AND AWARDS

Section 18.01 A small gift may be given to each departing member of the United Club General Board. The President and an advisor will include expenses for said gifts in their respective budgets. The budget committee will determine the spending limit for the board gifts.

Article XIX. DECLARATION OF INVALIDITY

Section 19.01 In the event an article of these bylaws or a portion thereof is declared invalid, the remaining and unaffected provision of such articles or portions thereof shall remain in full force and effect.
